

ON IN KENTUCKY.

sonborn, called the
posed Col. HENRY
ut of the Conven-
Franklin, and W.
Presidents.
er, was appointed
propriety of prayer
ed further with its Fayette addressed

all persons present,
acts of the meeting,
an appointed date

that a committee be expressive of the
sed.
ille, moved that the
each county repre-
posed further to declaring that the
ll be designated by
nties, respectively.
ned until 2 o'clock.
RNGON.

George M. Bedin-
th, of Bourbon; J.
okinridge, of Psy-
nklin; George F.
Drane, of Henry;
son; J. G. Fee, of
Lincoln; W. L.
C. M. Clay, of Mad-
; A. W. Hynes, of
olas; J. S. Cruteh-

announced, were in sired to say a few
d others would vol-
of filling up the e committee. We ordinary purpose.
ense interest and
a resolute foe—de-
We have against

devil, he will flee politicians, they will vicious, we must be missing. It will not sary offers no mid-
e. If we would be e may not win the injure, but rather Being in the right, every battle. The s gaining from both say they are in the hem are right; but dom and Emancipaeph everywhere, and ely upon it. The
tive in all things—
and believe, array
right.

count. I believe
three hundred—
from now until the
that gain, we must
we have no com-

abled must exert a
for woe. There are
for the hope of ul-
leave here at once.
old, and shows we
they will remain
nothing to hope for,
other lands a rid-
y. Have heard it
and expose the law
cause, let me not for others in the offended no com-
pro, a high and holy solved to stand or to imitate their ex-nally a zeal and an
cause. But, I am given my advice. If there may be found

prosperity of the
decided, and resolute to be found with isville, said he was
as a fiduciary, and
her. He began in
was something under and slave; and strengthened with his institution has been nail injury in more
s of age, I became a
able and influential have loved that honor has been torn and
tion and fellowship
er, in that organiza-
ed, by the influence

...I stood by her in
...noble Kentucky—
...strength, and pro-
...fathers in an evil
...proud to say that I

metropolis of your people are for Emanuel are ready and will to procure the excluded to consider, is a is not a question of seriously disturbed until it is settled. We are right to discuss will deny. Where- discussed, it will and we then but to act and go hence armed but half fight, we perfectly well, there who are deadly hos- oppose us at every o them all the hon- for myself in the They believe, no est for the country. may reason together.

power in the people
tion, it seems to me, s want of force and
d jurist will contro-
ver the question.
ot may be said to be they. The denial of aticism—such as we
-slavery men of the s the spirit we have
ess—displayed, too, e wisest men in the

could induce Mr. hands to be a man to combat the great Independence, that unal, by the pitiful corn—but that babies that there are among men, men who deny the perpetuation of spirit of fanaticism. Iated from my boy-ney are generous, any of them display and magnanimity on r to meet it boldly, declaration of want Justice of this glo-ntly been heard to The right to hold the people in their

mend the Constitu-

ON²
N IN KENTUCKY.
ation of the friends
y assembled at the ednesday, the 25th onrbon, called the
posed Col. HENRY
ut of the Conven-
Franklin, and W.
Presidents.
er, was appointed

all persons present, at the meeting, appointed delegates to the Convention, Chicago. The motion carried by a large voice.

...ville, moved that the
each county repre-
proposed further to
declaring that the
all be designated by
nties, respectively.
ned until 2 o'clock.
noon.
e Convention was gentlemen were Grand Committee
adopted in the fore-
George M. Bedin-
th, of Bourbon; J.

Marriage, or Ray-
nklin; George F.
Drane, of Henry;
son; J. G. Fee, of
Lincoln; W. L.
C. M. Clay, of Mad-
; A. W. Hynes, of
olas; J. S. Cruteh-
omson, of Pulaski;
rk Hardin, of Shel-
poynter; Samuel D.
Poynter, of Bath;
announced, were in

ordinary purpose. immense interest and a resolute foe—de- We have against and George D. Pre- devil, he will flee ditionians, they will orious, we must ising. It will not ary offers no mid- e. If we would be e may not win the injure, but rather Being in the right, every battle. The s gaining from both say they are in the hem are right; but

...s said we were not county. I believe
three hundred—
from now until the
that gain, we must
we have no com-
abled must exert a
or woe. There are
for the hope of ul-
leave here at once.
hold, and shows we
they will remain

thing to hope for, other lands a riddle. I have heard it misse upon the law cause, let ns do no forsothers in the offered no oomproe, a high and holy solved to stand or to imitate their exmanly, and deterith a zeal and an cause. But, I am even my advice. If there may be found unfurl the true banprosperity of the cided, and resolute to be found with

isville, said he was
as a fiduciary, and
er. He began in
was something un-
der and slave; and
rengthened with his stitution has been nal injury in more
s of age, I became a ble and influential ve loved that hon-
has been torn and
tion and fellowship
er, in that organiza-
ed by the influence
The severance of
ful to me; yet the

asly looked for the
when my State—
noble Kentucky—
r strength, and properrible curse of slave fathers in an ev-
proud to say that I
l metropolis of your people are for Eman-
are ready and will-
to procure the ex-

a right to discuss will deny. Where-discussed, it will and ve then but to act ge hence armed but half fight, we perfectly well, there who are deadly hos-
 oppose us at every
 to them all the hon-
 for myself in the
 They believe, no
 est for the country.
 may reason together.
 ed, to convince them
 on. Then there is umbers and intelli-
 power in the people

want of force and jurist will contro-
 ver the question.
 may be said to be dicy. The denial of anticism—such as we
 slavery men of the
 the spirit we have
 ess—displayed, too,
 the wisest men in the
 for what else but could induce Mr.
 hands to be a man
 to combat the great Independence, that nal,¹⁷ by the pitiful corn—but that babies that there are among men, men who deny the perpetuation of spirit of fanaticism.

I am pained from my boy-hood, they are generous, many of them display and magnanimity on par to meet it boldly, a declaration of want Justice of this gloriously been heard to
The right to hold the people in their
ed in convention,
mend the Constitu-

